Since mid-1951 certain key assignments in the Kwangsi Military District have been changed, and as of 31 January 1952 the more important offices were held by the following:

1. LI T'ien-yu (李天佑) was commander of the Kwangsi Military District. He had been replaced as deputy commander by LU Shao-wu (盧紹武), who formerly was chief of staff.
2. CHANG Yun-i (張雲逸), concurrently with his other appointments, held the post of political commissar; the actual duties of this post, however, were discharged by CH'EN Man-yuan (陳漫遠) as acting political commissar.
3. LIU Sui-ch'un (劉隨春) was deputy political commissar, replacing MO Wen-hua (莫文華) who had been appointed director of the political department of the Northeast Military Area. LIU was also director of the political department of the Kwangsi Military District.
4. T'AN Shih-mien (覃世冕) was chief of staff of the Kwangsi Military District. Previously he had been commander of the Kwangsi public security forces.
5. YU Po (于博) was director of the Supply and Service Command of the Kwangsi Military District, while LU Ping-an (呂炳安) was deputy director of the District's political department.
